

Create beautiful altars to remember your loved ones

in this 4 hour workshop Saturday September 23rd and/or Saturday October 21st.

All Souls Day, All Saints Day, Dia de los Muertos, Halloween; the days to remember the family members who have gone before you are fast approaching. Many cultures create altars with which to remember their ancestors and loved ones. The altars can be brought out for special occasions or left up to be viewed year round.

You will create your beautiful and very personal altar using cigar boxes, beautiful papers, glitter, bling, paper flowers, and your own mementos. Share stories, food, fun, with other participants while you create one-of-a-kind shrines honoring a person (or pet) you have lost.

Sign up for both days or just one.

When: Saturday, September 23rd and/or October 21st
from 11:00 am-2:00 pm

Where: Manzano Arts on Broadway
Mountainair, NM 87036

Cost: $35.00/person/class includes materials, snacks, direction and input from the artist.

You provide: beverage of your choice, photos of loved ones, memorabilia (trinkets) to be included in your work

Minimum 4 participants maximum 10 participants aged 21 years or older

Call Rebecca Anthony 505-948-4294 or email artonthegrayhill@gmail.com to reserve your space now.

