Support the Arts in Rural Central
New Mexico!

The Manzano Mountain Art Council (MMAC) showcases the artistic and creative talents within the mountain and valley communities of central New Mexico. Our programs serve to nurture youth; foster creativity; encourage connection with the natural world, people and cultural history; celebrate diversity and the arts; and create economic opportunities.

The Manzano Mountain Art Council is a nonprofit 501.c(3) organization established in 1995. Programs and events are made possible through grants from the NM Arts (a division of the NM Department of Cultural Affairs), the Albuquerque Community Foundation, the Hancock Foundation, the BNSF Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Hart Family Fund for Historic Preservation, the National Institute for Historical Preservation, and donations from our members and the community. Donations of any amount are accepted and appreciated.
