

FEBRUARY SPEAKER SERIES

Mountainair, Punta de Agua, Manzano

2pm - February 4, Saturday
Mountainair in Story & Song

Davine Torres sings selections from the historical "Diamonds in the Field" (a musical memoir of the bean field years) and Sidney Pickel Smart speaks to that time period through Mountainair family stories she has collected over the years.

2pm - February 11, Saturday
Red Rock, Punta de Agua, & Cottonwoods:
Images of Persistence

Murt Sullivan, former Salinas ranger and resident of Punta de Agua, speaks about the unusual geology that brings fresh water to the surface at this point and that has attracted and held groups of people from mammoth hunters to the people of today.

2pm - February 18, Saturday
Local Land Grants of New Mexico

Gloria Zamora, teacher and artist, living her life on the Manzano Land Grant, enlightens and informs about the history and current policies of the state's land grants with a focus on the Manzano Grant.

MMAC CENTER
101 E BROADWAY
MOUNTAINAIR, NM 87036
Corner of US 60 & NM 55

FREE to attend!
Donations accepted.
MMACevents@gmail.com
(505) 847-5068

ManzanoMountainArtCouncil.org