

Manzano Mountain Art Council ART SHOWS 2023-2024

MMAC is scheduling art exhibits 4 months apart for a year so Artists have time to create!

April 1, 2023: CHASING THE LIGHT

Reflection of LIGHT & DARK
Shadows, Sunsets, Sunrises, lighted sculptures.

August 1, 2023: SHADES OF BLUE

An emphasis on how this color plays out in the New Mexico landscape, but all representations of the colors accepted.

December 1, 2023: MASKS & METAL

Masks of any medium – historical, real or imagined. From Halloween to Covid to Cultures around the world masks hide, protect, portray and frighten. The diversity of metal used by artists, from the smallest jewelry to the largest sculptures and everything in between.

April, 2024: INSPIRED BY THE LAND

Earthen materials, dioramas, landscapes - works that speak of human connection to the land.

August 2024: SYMBOLISM

Real to Surreal - Explorations of the symbols throughout history and in current day and their deeper meanings.

December 2024: DECAY, RUST & GRUNGE

Art made from and depicting life and objects past their prime.

Commission Art Sales: MMAC will find a buyer, process payments, and arrange for delivery of any art pieces you would like to sell during this show. Our commission fee is 20%. Events are supported in part by Grants from New Mexico Arts (a division of the Department of Cultural Affairs) & the National Endowment for the Arts.